

Math Quiz

Math involves fluency and comprehension. Math fluency is the ability to apply mathematical procedures accurately, efficiently and flexibly. These include addition, subtraction, multiplication and division. Math comprehension involves reading and understanding written problems.

Does your child...	YES	NO
Struggle to remember math facts?
Make silly mistakes?
Have trouble lining up long multiplication and division problems?
Flip numbers?
Lack tools/strategies to prove work?
Rely on a calculator to complete math homework?
Use fingers to count?
Hate word problems?
Resist or dread math homework?
Take longer than expected to complete math equations?

If you answered "Yes" to any of these questions click here to find out how we can help!